

Listening to the Spirit

The Quaker Settlement Whanganui

11 to 13 September 2015

From dinner Friday 11 September at 6.30pm, to lunch Sunday 13 September

Seminar facilitator:
Elizabeth Thompson

Listening to the Spirit

This weekend is for those who want to experience the spirit more deeply than usually happens in our daily lives. It is for both those who are new to Quakers and those who are more experienced.

There will be extended Meeting for Worship and worship sharing in small groups, to hear the small quiet voice within ourselves and listen to others, with some opportunity for inner reflection.

We will consider our spiritual experiences including 'that of God' within.

Come prepared to share deeply and respect confidentiality.

In preparation you may want to read one of the following:

“Testament of Devotion” by Thomas Kelly

“Listening Spirituality” by Patricia Loring
(Vol. 1, introductory chapter). Vol 2.

Pendle Hill Pamphlet 299, “Vistas from Inner Stillness” by Richard L. Walker

To find out more about the seminar, contact

Financial assistance to attend, may be available through your Monthly Meeting.
