

POEMS FOR PEACE

Part of the Quaker Meeting House Open Weekend
24-27th April 2015

Probably second only to 'Love' in its intensity, the poetry and prose surrounding Peace and Conflict would be one of the most passionate and personal forms of expression that humans can make in their desire to live in peace with one another, and with their planet.

As part of the ANZAC Open Meeting House Weekend you are invited to participate in a "Poems for Peace" evening on:

Friday 24th April 7.30 - 9.00pm

If you know of a piece of poetry which you feel 'speaks' to you as a Peace Poem, then please consider bringing it along to read, and to discuss what it 'says' to you. (Some brief biographical notes on the poet might also be interesting).

If you feel moved to participate please contact Jim Flewitt;
Tel: 624 4450, email: flewitts@xtra.co.nz

If you haven't a piece to read but would like to share the poetry of others then please mark the above details in your diary and come and join us.

Refreshments provided.
