

Peace from a Faith Perspective

Part of the Quaker Meeting House Open Weekend
24-27th April 2015

When we examine the different Faith Groups; Christian, Buddhist, Muslim, Hindu etc, we find that they all have peaceful co-existence as a core testimony. Why then in the modern world do we find ourselves so often in conflict with one another, divided along the lines of our belief?

As part of the ANZAC Open Meeting House Weekend you are invited to participate in a “Peace from a Faith Perspective” evening on:

Saturday 25th April 7.30 - 9.00pm

113 Mt Eden Road, Mt Eden, Auckland

Come along and hear speakers from different Faiths talk about peace and the peace process from their perspectives. The session promises to be an interesting and lively one including an open forum for questions and general discussion.
